Brooke Crews and William Hoehn,

On 8-19-17 Fargo Police responded to 2825 9th St N apartment number 2 for a report of a missing person. Norberta Greywind reported her daughter, Savanna Greywind, had gone to apartment #5 in the same building at approximately 1:30pm on 8-19-17 and never returned. Norberta also stated Savanna is 8 months pregnant.

Officers checked apartment number 5 numerous times and spoke with the residents Brooke Crews and William Hoehn multiple times but Savanna Greywind was not located.

Additional information obtained during the investigation led Officers to conduct a search warrant at 2825 9th St N apartment 5, the residence of Brooke Crews and William Hoehn, on 8-24-17. During the execution of that search warrant an infant child was discovered inside the apartment, along with Brooke Crews.

Brooke Crews was detained, and provided her Miranda warning by Detective Nick Kionaas. She was transported to the Fargo Police Department for questioning. William Hoehn was located at work, detained, and provided his Miranda warning by Lt Shannon Ruziska. Hoehn was also transported to the Fargo Police Department for questioning.

Detectives Nick Kionaas and Josh Loos spoke to William Hoehn who stated he arrived home from work on 8-19-17 at approximately 2:30pm to discover Brooke Crews cleaning up blood in their bathroom. Hoehn also stated Crews presented him with an infant baby girl stating, "This is our baby, this is our family". Hoehn admitted removing garbage bags containing bloody towels and his own bloody shoes from the apartment and disposing them in an apartment building dumpster at an unknown location in the city of West Fargo.

Brook Crews stated she arranged to have Savanna Greywind come to Crews and Hoehn's apartment on 8-19-17. Crews stated she then instructed Savanna Greywind on how to self-induce child birth by breaking her own water. Crews claimed Savanna Greywind then left her apartment, but returned at 3:30am on 8-21-17 and gave Crews an infant child.

Crews admitted she had taken advantage of Savanna Greywind in an attempt to obtain her child and possibly keep the child as her own. Crews also stated she had multiple opportunities to turn the child over to law enforcement or the Greywind family but did not, knowing that Savanna Greywind was reported as a missing person.

On 8-27-17 Savanna Greywind's body was discovered in the Red River encased in plastic bags.

Please consider charges of conspiracy to commit murder, conspiracy to commit kidnapping, and false information against Brooke Crews and William Hoehn for causing the death of Savanna Greywind and securing the infant child of Savanna Greywind in their apartment where the child was not likely to be found, and providing false information to the police.
