Use the table to compare the data the IRS received from others to the information you reported on your tax return to understand where the difference(s) occurred. To assist you in reviewing your income amounts, the table may include both reported and unreported amounts.

Self-Employment Tax on Self-Employment (SE) Income
 Self-Employment (SE) income generally includes nonemployee compensation, merchant card, third party network payments, and other income from part-time or full-time work and is subject to Self-Employment Tax. We figured the Self-Employment Tax on the net SE income reported on your return and/or on the underreported SE income.

Self-Employment Tax consists of Social Security Tax of 12.4% and Medicare Tax of 2.9%, and for SE income in excess of certain thresholds based on your filing status, an Additional Medicare Tax of 0.9%. (Even if you have paid the maximum amount of Social Security Tax, you are still liable for Medicare Tax, and Additional Medicare Tax, if over the applicable threshold.) The deductible part of the Self-Employment Tax is based on the change we made to your Self-Employment Tax. If you were an employee, you will be liable for income tax and the employee's share of Social Security (6.2%) and Medicare taxes (1.45%), and Additional Medicare Tax, if applicable. Your social security account will be credited with the amount of Self-Employment income shown on this notice.

Refigured tax based on Schedule D computation
 We refigured your tax using the Schedule D tax computation.

Form W-2 or 1099 not received

The law requires you to report your income correctly. If your payers did not send you a yearly income statement (Form W-2, Wage and Tax Statement, Form 1099, etc.), you must use the information you have (pay stubs, monthly income statements, deposit slips, etc.) to estimate the total amount of income you received during the year.

Misidentified income

If any of the income shown on this notice is not yours, send us the name, address, and social security number of the person who received the income. Please notify the payers to correct their records to show the name and social security number of the person who actually received the income, so that future reports to us are accurate.

Next steps

- You don't need to file an amended tax return for 2014. We will make the correction when we receive your response. However, if you choose to file an amended tax return (Form 1040X), write "CP2000" on the top of your amended federal tax return (Form 1040X) and attach it behind your completed Response form. Go to www.irs.gov to download Form 1040X or call 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676).
- Please file an amended tax return (Form 1040X) for any other tax years in which the same error occurred.
- We send information about these changes to state and local tax agencies, so if the changes we made apply, file an amended state or local tax return as soon as possible.

Interest charges

We are required by law to charge interest on unpaid tax from the date the tax return was due to the date the tax is paid in full. The interest is charged as long as there is an unpaid amount due, including penalties, if applicable. (Internal Revenue Code section 6601)
