RE: Application for change of name
Civil Case No. CL14-293
Shenandoah County Circuit Court

Dear Mr. Brill:

I have denied your application for change of name. In view of your felony record, I want to avoid any confusion as to your identity in our computer data bases, both the Central Criminal Records Exchange and the Virginia Criminal Information Network. If you actually undergo a sex change operation as contemplated under Virginia Code §32.1-269, you may file a new application.

Sincerely,

RE: Application for change of name
Civil Case No. CL14-293
Shenandoah County Circuit Court

Dear Mr. Brill:

I received a letter from Donna J. Buchanan concerning your Gender Identity Disorder. I do not understand the reason this is being submitted at this time. I have previously denied your application for change of name, and that is a closed matter. I have no jurisdiction to grant the name change except upon new application filed with the Court. As I have stated previously, I will not entertain a name change until such time as you undergo a sex change operation as contemplated in Virginia Code §32.1-269.

Sincerely,

Dennis L. Hupp
