

Response sent by Cynthia Dunbar Campaign:

“We are confident that we are going to win this convention no matter who the convention chairman is and no matter what tricks the establishment attempts to pull. Our message has remained positive and focused during this entire campaign and unlike our opposition, we have not succumbed to the Swamp.

We have not succumbed to the mudslinging nor character assassination rendered by candidates who feel desperate to win at any and all costs, even at the expense of their own personal reputations. No matter how Ben Cline and his collusion with other campaigns attempt to suppress our delegate votes or continually misrepresent the truth, on May 19th convention delegates are going to have a clear choice. The choice is going to be between Ben Cline and Cynthia Dunbar. Cline, a career politician who spent 10 years as chief of staff to Congressman Goodlatte, sitting in the House of Delegates for 16 years, and who has refused to take a term limit pledge. On the other hand Cynthia Dunbar has pledged to serve no more than 3 terms maximum when elected and is a proven fighter for conservative causes earning her the endorsement of conservative leaders such as Senator Ted Cruz, Former Congressmen Ron Paul and Michelle Bauchmann, Carol Swain, Morton Blackwell, General Boykin, and David Barton among many others.”
