INFORMATION

On the date and time indicated I was standing on the west side of Abbott next to the old MSUFCU watching Conrad's as the bars were closing for the night.

All of the sudden myself and Officer Horn heard a loud slap sound. I could immediately see the crowd disperse into two sides as Green went one way and Edmonson went the other way.

The crowd then began to get very loud as people were arguing back and forth.

At this point Sgt. Pride was sitting at the light on Grand River and Abbott and had called out a fight at Conrad's. Officer Horn and I immediately ran over to Conrad's.

Sgt. Pride during this time was talking to Edmonson who identified Green as the one that had slapped him across the face.

ARREST/TRANSPORT

Officer Horn and I then ran over to Green and handcuffed him per departmentally policy, as he was walking North on Abbott road.

Once Officer Horn and I hand placed handcuffs on Green, we walked him over to Officer Horn's patrol vehicle where he searched Green before entering his vehicle.

Officer Horn then transported Green to ELPD's Jail.

STATUS

Respectfully Submitted,

INFORMATION

On 7/10/16 at approx. 0228 hrs., Ofc. Humphries and I were on foot at the NW corner of Grand River and Abbot. There had just been an altercation in front of Rick's Bar and a handful of the subjects involved in the altercation walked to Conrad's at 101 E Grand River at which time we did stand in the NW corner watching Conrad's.

We did observe several subjects come out the front door closest to Grand River and begin talking in a large group. ROs were watching the group when I observed a taller, b/m, wearing a white t-shirt, open handedly slap another b/m across the face with his R hand to the victim's Ofc. Horn then went NB on Abbot towards PT's with Ofc. Humphries where they then placed the suspect under arrest.

EDMONDSON'S STATEMENT

Edmondson stated that he was an MSU student and an MSU football player. He indicated on 7/9/16 he had contact with the suspect Green inside of Rick's on Abbot Rd. Edmondson stated that while they were in the bar, Draymond had bumped into him.

Edmondson stated that he turned around and told the subject to watch where he was going. Edmondson stated that at that time, Draymond stated, "Do you know who I am?" Edmondson stated he did know who the suspect was however he didn't care that he bumped into him.

Williams indicated to RO that as they were standing outside of Conrad's, Draymond Green had walked up to Edmondson. Hello Sergeant Chad Pride,

My name is Jermaine Edmondson and I am making a statement on the incident that took place last night.

Friday, July 8th I went out to the bar Ricks and came across Draymond Green and two other males that were with him who followed everywhere he went. I was talking to one of my teammates when Draymond bumped into me and I said "hey bro you can at least say excuse me" he looked at me and continued to talk to my teammate asking him who I was. I told him don't worry about who I am and I asked who he was to think that it's okay to bump into somebody without saying excuse me. He then said I pay for n*ggas like you scholarships, I then started to say you have me messed up before I was choked out by 2 guys who were with him. I was taken downstairs by 3 of Ricks employees to calm the situation until I heard my girlfriend yell. So I run over to her to see what was going on and she said she was choked by another one of the guys who were with Draymond for trying to calm the situation down. This is wrong on so many levels for someone to think that something like this is okay. Me and my girlfriend were both choked in front of our peers and we couldn't do anything about it.

Saturday, July 9th (the night of my birthday) Me, my girlfriend, and a couple of other friends went back to Ricks to celebrate and enjoy my night. As the bar was closing my girlfriend and I went to Conrad's. I noticed Draymond was in there, I didn't pay him any mind until he walks all the way across the line to look my girlfriend up and down and smirks at her. I still did not say a word to him. About 5 minutes later when everyone is outside, I see my roommate and Draymond talking, I walk over and I tell Draymond that last night wasn't cool. As he responded to me he began to poke me on my shoulder and I tell him that he doesn't need to put his hands on me, we can just talk. As I started to talk again, boom, I'm punched in my jaw. In front of all of my peers and friends.

As far as today, I'm not feeling the best. My neck and my jaw still hurts along with the headache that I've had since I was hit. I would like to take further action on this situation and I am willing to fully cooperate to get this situation taken care of.

My number is [REDACTED]

Thank you,

Jermaine Edmondson
